EDITORIAL EDITORIAL

Liebe Kolleginnen und Kollegen im Buchhandel,

alles neu macht – in unserem Fall – der Juli. Denn in dieser Petersen Vorschau ist ein bisschen was anders: Mehr Aktions-Pakete für Ihre Schaufenster und Auslagen, zwei saisonale Bilderbuch-Pakete und, wie jeden Herbst, liebevoll ausgewählte Geschenkbücher, die diesmal gesammelt vor den Kalendern zu finden sind. Was aber bleibt wie immer: Viele, viele spannende Neuerscheinungen und potentielle Lieblingsbücher für Ihre Buchhandlung!

Ob Cozy Fantasy, Healing Fiction, Self-Help oder klassische Krimis – wir Lesenden werden in diesem Bücher-Herbst reihenweise in andere, etwas hellere oder ruhigere Welten entführt. Einige Highlight-Titel schlagen (man könnte auch sagen „spielen“) dagegen ernstere Töne an, zum Beispiel der neue Roman der frisch Pulitzer prämierten Yiyun Li: In „Music Against the Night“ folgen wir den Spuren der beiden musikalischen Ausnahmetalente John Field und Adelaide Percheron. Lis Pulitzer-Kollegin Barbara Kingsolver gibt sich im sehnlichst erwarteten Neuling „Partita“ der Leidenschaft zur (Piano-)Musik hin und in „Lessons in Harmony“ nimmt Jonathan Coe die Beziehung der freundschaftlich verbundenen Komponisten Maurice Ravel und Ralph Vaughan Williams unter die Lupe.

Weniger musikalisch, aber ebenfalls kulturraffin ist Rachel Cusks „Life of M“, das die Themen Ruhm, Macht und Schönheit anhand eines begehrten, weiblichen Filmstars abhandelt. In ähnlich kreativen Kreisen bewegt sich auch Elif Shafak mit „In One Brief Moment All Eternity“: Der legendäre Autor Gustave Flaubert wird hier mit den Frauen seines Lebens und seines Schreibens konfrontiert. Und ganz besonders freuen wir uns auf den Coming-of-Age-Roman der Bestseller-Königin Rebecca Kuang, die sich in „Taipei Story“ sehr intim mit dem Zerrissensein zwischen zwei Kulturen auseinandersetzt. So viel Schönes, da könnte man fast vergessen, welch dunkle Schatten momentan auf der Welt lasten! Licht ins Dunkel der aktuellen politischen Lagen bringen zum Glück blitzgescheite Sachbücher von bekannten Namen wie Naomi Klein, Annie Jacobsen oder Daron Acemoglu.

Ein Bonbon zum Schluss: Wenn Sie mit Ihrer Buchhandlung gern den Adventskalender „Twenty-Four Books for Advent“ gewinnen möchten, müssen Sie einfach nur im Zeitraum zwischen dem 01.07.2026 und dem 30.09.2026 ein Schaufenster mit Englischen Titeln gestalten und uns ein Foto davon an vertrieb@petersen-buchimport.com schicken. Aus allen Einsendungen ziehen wir dann Anfang Oktober die Gewinner-Buchhandlung und schicken ihr den Adventskalender nach Erscheinen umgehend zu. Weitere Infos hierzu folgen in unserem Newsletter.

Wir wünschen Ihnen viel Spaß beim Entdecken neuer Lieblinge!

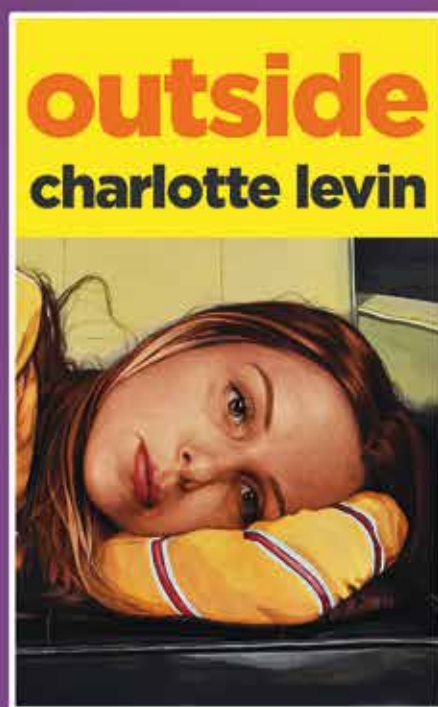

Ihr Team von Petersen Buchimport

Maggie: Or, A Man and a Woman
Walk Into a Bar
(Maggie)

Belletristik

Unfolding in fragments over the course of the ensuing months, Maggie follows the narrator as she embarks on a journey of grief, healing, and reclamation. In the style of Jenny Offill and the tradition of Nora Ephron's writing on heartbreak and womanhood, Maggie is a master class in transforming personal tragedy into a form of defiant comedy. Longlisted for the 2026 PEN/Hemingway Award for Debut Novel and a New York Times Book of the Year.

Yokomizo, Seishi
Murder at the Black Cat Cafe
Krimi/Thriller

Tokyo, 1947. The Pink Labyrinth is one of the bomb-scarred city's most shady neighbourhoods. There, in the dead of night, a patrolling policeman catches a young Buddhist monk digging in the back yard of The Black Cat Cafe, a notorious brothel. In the shallow grave at his feet lie the dead body of a woman, her face disfigured beyond recognition, and the corpse of a black cat. The brilliant sleuth Kosuke Kindaichi investigates, but as he draws closer to the truth, he finds himself in grave danger ...

A classic Japanese mystery.

Fukuyama, Francis
In the Realm of the Last Man
(Der letzte Mensch)
Sachbuch, Politik

In 1989, before the Berlin Wall fell, Francis Fukuyama presented The End of History, a hugely influential and controversial work. By 2009, he had broken with neoconservatives, rejecting the Iraq War and laissez-faire policies behind the 2008 crash. In this memoir, he reflects on his life and major political shifts, from the Cold War's end to recent global conflicts.

Peasants

Sachbuch, Gesellschaft

Peasants never disappeared – we simply stopped seeing them. For centuries, they fed empires, led revolutions and built modern states. Yet industrial modernity forced them into the shadows. Today, political and economic elites speak as if peasants are relics of the past, even though this two-billion-strong workforce grows a third of our food. They hold up the modern world, yet the true story of how they shaped it has long been obscured.

Explores contemporary peasant worlds to uncover the exploitative systems that power global markets.

Chang, Jung
Fly, Wild Swans
(Fliegt, Wilde Schwäne)
Sachbuch, Biografie

The book is in many ways Jung's love letter to her mother. It is inevitably also about her grandmother and father, both of whom died tragically in the Cultural Revolution. In fact, the past is never far away in Jung's subsequent life. It has shaped her, and moulded the present China, and what's more, it promises to herald the future.

The follow-up to Wild Swans brings the story of Jung's family – along with that of China – up to date.

Glasse, Julianna
This is What Happens When Women Read
Sachbuch, Biografie

On the surface, Julianna Glasse had it all. But in reality, her life was far from perfect. It was only when she began to read, and read widely, that she started to question the fundamentalist Christian community that she had spent her life inside. In this one-of-a-kind memoir, she tells the story of how books helped reclaim her power and her voice, and her mission to free women across the world from the strictures of religion.

The inspiring true story of one woman's escape from religious indoctrinations, through the power of books.

Gleick, James
The Telephone
Sachbuch, Geschichte

One hundred and fifty years ago, the telephone appeared like magic, transforming life from business to warfare, news to intimacy. Soon so common it seemed ordinary, people forgot life without it. In The Telephone, James Gleick explores its invention myths, the ruthless profiteers behind it, and how this once-extraordinary device reshaped the world and humanity itself.

The story of a technology that not only changed the world but changed us.

Chen, Dominique
Future Words

Sachbuch, Literatur

Dominique Chen grew up with multiple languages, cultures and disciplines. He draws on philosophy from Deleuze to Sapir and Whorf, and design, anthropology and cognitive science, to explore the Umwelt: the unique sensory and conceptual world each being inhabits. By moving between memoir and theory, intimate domestic moments and global cultural history, Chen reveals language as a living environment – something we adapt and co-create.

Erudite and witty, this book will make you hear language differently!

Belletristik

From joyous tales of renewal and transformation for Spring, to hushed stories for long Winter nights, each season has a particular spirit which is celebrated in folktales from across the northern climes. In these magical retellings of classic folktales, we journey from snowy mountain peaks to wild forests and stormy coastlines, as we observe the moon phases, find folkloric treasures and meet an array of strange and mysterious creatures.

Embrace the changing seasons with this beautifully illustrated collection.

Cantique du chaos

Belletristik

Die Welt hat den Gipfel des Wahnsinns erreicht: Katastrophen und Diktaturen erschüttern sie. Doch ein Mann, Théo Gracques, zeigt sich diesen Katastrophen gegenüber gleichgültig. Als Flüchtling auf einer Insel trifft er eine Frau und ihre zwei Kinder, mit einem ähnlich rebellischen Geist. Gemeinsam reisen sie durch Europa und Amerika, um dem Schicksal zu trotzen und ihre Freiheit bis zum Äußersten auszuüben. Für Leser von Roberto Bolaño oder Cormac McCarthy.

Benini, Annalena
Annalena
Belletristik

Zwei Frauen, derselbe Name. Annalena Tonelli hat alles aufgegeben, um sich den Ärmsten zu widmen. Sie hat jede Spur von Eitelkeit abgelegt, beseelt von einem glühenden Glauben. Annalena Benini betrachtet sie staunend aus der Ferne und fragt sich, wie man so leben kann. Diese Gegenüberstellung zweier gegensätzlicher Leben zeigt die unterschiedlichen Lebenswirklichkeiten von Frauen auf, die auf den ersten Blick nichts als den Vornamen teilen.

Dimmi di te
Belletristik

Eine Schwangerschaft zieht Chiara den Boden unter Füßen weg. Sie fragt sich, was aus ihren Träumen und Wünschen geworden ist. In ihrem orientierungslosen Zustand begegnet sie einem alten Freund: der Auslöser für Chiara, sich mit ihrer Vergangenheit und Herkunft auseinanderzusetzen. Sie nimmt Kontakt zu alten Bekannten aus ihrer Jugend auf, um sie zu fragen: "Hast du es geschafft, erwachsen zu werden, ohne dich selbst zu verlieren?" So beginnt eine Reise in die Vergangenheit und in ihr Innerstes, wo jede Begegnung ein Spiegel und eine Prüfung ist.

Lezioni sull'odio
Belletristik

Eine radikale, bildhafte und äußerst originelle Reflexion, verfasst von einer der brilliantesten und inspirierendsten Autorinnen, die die italienische Kultur je gekannt hat. Hass ist eines der wenigen Tabus, die man nicht brechen kann. Murgias These lautet, dass Hass eine Tugend sein kann, je nachdem, wie wir ihn ausüben. Sie räumt mit unseren Vorurteilen auf und fordert das Recht ein, zu hassen – insbesondere die Übervorteilten, die Tyrannen, all jene, die nicht an die kollektive Verantwortung für das Gute glauben.
